

Reg. No

Name

B. A. DEGREE END SEMESTER EXAMINATION - MARCH 2020
SEMESTER 2 : ENGLISH (COMPLEMENTARY)
COURSE : 19U2CPENG2 : ENGLISH FOR COPY EDITING - II
(For Regular - 2019 Admission)

Time : Three Hours

Max. Marks: 75

Section AAnswer All the Following (1 mark each)

1. Define proof reading.
2. Define mapping.
3. Language editing.
4. Prototype in writing process.
5. Write a note on connecting words.
6. 'I', 'me', 'mine', 'we' etc occur in ----- approach.
7. Define scratch outline.
8. What is exposition?
9. Define argument.
10. What is wordiness?

(1 x 10 = 10)

Section BAnswer any 8 (2 marks each)

11. What is a 'one-three-one essay'?
12. How are sentences made specific?
13. What is the psychological value of 'free writing'?
14. Distinguish between peer review and personal review.
15. What are the hints to be pondered over while writing the first draft?
16. Distinguish between thesis statement and topic statement.
17. Define division and classification pattern.
18. Explain a transitional phrase.
19. "..... the glassy lake that reflected the bejewelled sky wafted on to us the refreshing cool and ravishing fragrance of an idyllic land." Identify the sensory details.
20. Comment briefly on two prewriting techniques.

(2 x 8 = 16)

Section CAnswer any 5 (5 marks each)

21. Distinguish between speaking and writing.
22. What are the common methods of introduction in essay writing?
23. Explain with illustrative examples ten proof reading symbols.

24. Provide two supporting points for the following thesis statement:
'The fact that both parents often work has led to a number of changes in the typical families.'
25. Define and illustrate third person approach.
26. Explain prewriting.
27. Write a model descriptive paragraph about a rose.

(5 x 5 = 25)

Section D

Answer any 2 (12 marks each)

28. Write a narrative essay on the topic: 'An Act of Generosity'.
29. Write an exemplification essay on the topic: Importance of Petroleum.
30. Write an essay on the different patterns of essay development.
31. Use comparison and contrast method to build an essay on 'Urban and Rural Life'.

(12 x 2 = 24)