

The Hindu

27 July 2018

Kochi; Flood, Kottayam, Alzppuzha

Kottayam, Alappuzha declared flood-hit

■ The state government's decision follows the State Disaster Management Authority's (SDMA) recommendation

■ Farmers in the districts eligible for crop insurance

₹2.44 cr

sanctioned by the SDMA at its state meeting to Alappuzha to tackle flood. Of this, ₹1.69 crore is meant for rebuilding the bunds and preventing waterlogging. Paadasekhara Samithis will be entrusted with the two works.

Water refuses to recede

EXPRESS @GROUND ZERO

Alappuzha/ Kottayam: The hardships of the residents of flood-hit Kuttanad continued as the water level in the area remained dangerous. Most houses are under water and more than one lakh people are in relief camps. There is no let up for the people in the low-lying areas of Kottayam district either, with Kallara panchayat bearing the brunt. P6

₹35 lakh

has been sanctioned for the repair of the MC Road which passes through the two districts

IMD ISSUES HEAVY RAINFALL WARNING

The IMD T'Puram has warned parts of the state will receive heavy rainfall on Monday, July 30