

Indian Express

15 June 2018

Kerala, Monsoon Fury, Flood, Landslide, Widespread Damage

RAIN GOES ON THE RAMPAGE

LANDSLIDES IN THE HILLS. FLOODED PLAINS. THERE'S NO ESCAPING THE RAIN FURY AS THE MONSOON LEAVES BEHIND A TRAIL OF DEATH AND DESTRUCTION. A PHOTO ESSAY BY EXPRESS LENS MEN

Rescue workers bring down a body found buried in the mud after a landslide hit Karincholia in Kozhikode | MANU R NAYYIL

Disaster management team members carry out rescue operations in Karincholia, where four houses were destroyed | T P SOOBAJ

With the Meenachil river in spate, a man uses a makeshift boat to ferry his child to safety in Kottayam | VISHNU PRATHAP

A ration shop owner checks his stock of foodgrains that got drenched in the flood at Pookkottor in Kozhikode | T P SOOBAJ

A two-wheeler rider wades through the flooded AC road. A scene from Onnamkara in Kuttanad | ARUN ANGELA

With streets becoming no-go areas for motor vehicles, local residents use a boat to get around Thiruvambadi town | EXPRESS

Locals and motorists assess the damage after a landslide at Thamarassery ghat due to heavy monsoon downpour | EXPRESS

