

Indian Express

19 July 2018

Kerala Flood, Monsoon Fury, Snapshot of Widespread Damage

SINKING FEELING

Just months after the death and destruction caused by cyclone Ockhi, the south-west monsoon, which set over Kerala on May 29, has resulted in heavy rain pounding the state, resulting in landslides, waterlogging and huge loss to property. Here's a snapshot of the widespread damage

103
DEATH TOLL

339
HOUSES TOTALLY DESTROYED

8,769
HOUSES PARTIALLY DAMAGED

8,802
AREA UNDER CULTIVATION DAMAGED (IN HECTARES)

524
RELIEF CAMPS HAVE BEEN SET UP

27,721
PEOPLE STAYING AT RELIEF CAMPS

Fire Safety and Rescue personnel rescue a boy who got stranded near Puthettu junction near Nattasseri | VISHNU PRATHAP

HEAVIEST RAINFALL

1,742.3 mm	1,639.5 mm
KOZHIKODE	IDUKKI

A banana plantation at Cherooppa in Kozhikode fully destroyed in the heavy flooding due to monsoon rain | MANU R MAVELIL

Dams	Full capacity	Current storage
Idukki	1,460	1,051.7
Idamalayar	1,017.8	723.7
Sholayar	149.2	117.8
Matupetty	55.2	38.0
Thariode	201	201

(in million cubic metres)

₹13.19 cr

Funds sanctioned by the state government for relief works

₹4 L

Financial assistance for people whose houses have been fully destroyed or damaged

₹6 L

Funds will be sanctioned for the flood-affected people who have lost land in the disaster and do not own land elsewhere in the state