

Reg. No

Name

23U649

B. Sc. DEGREE END SEMESTER EXAMINATION : MARCH 2023

SEMESTER 6 : PSYCHOLOGY

COURSE : 19U6CRPSY10 : CHILD DEVELOPMENT

(For Regular - 2020 Admission)

Time : Three Hours

Max. Marks: 75

PART A

Answer All (1 mark each)

1. Define contrast sensitivity
2. Language adaptation to social expectations are called -----
3. The most widely used prenatal diagnostic method is -----
4. As synapses form, many surrounding neurons die. This aspect of brain growth is called -----
5. Morality is externally controlled at which level of Kohlbergs theory of moral development
6. Piaget's term for back-and-forth movement between equilibrium and disequilibrium is -----
7. In heteronomous morality rules are viewed as -----
8. Children developing in the same time period who are influenced by particular cultural and historical conditions are called -----
9. Low Birth Weight is defined as weight less than -----
10. The virtue of wisdom develops during which psychosocial stage

(1 x 10 = 10)

PART B

Answer any 8 (2 marks each)

11. Differentiate between referential style and expressive style of early language learning
12. Explain how skeletal age helps to estimate the physical maturity of a child
13. Describe the function of the placenta
14. Differentiate between cephalocaudal and proximodistal laws of development with examples
15. What is Kangaroo Care
16. Define micro genetic design
17. Explain the dynamic systems theory of motor development
18. Define the terms hypothetico deductive reasoning and propositional thought
19. Explain how Bowlby has applied ethological theory to the understanding of the human infant-caregiver relationship
20. According to Piaget what leads to the development of morality of cooperation

(2 x 8 = 16)

PART C

Answer any 5 (5 marks each)

21. Identify three basic issues on which child development theories take a stand.
22. Bring out the major changes that takes place during the period of fetus
23. Briefly describe the APGAR Scale

24. Sensitive caregiving is related to attachment security. Do you agree with this statement? Substantiate your answer
 25. Do you think hormones influence physical growth? Substantiate your answer
 26. Define ZPD. Examine the various features of social interaction that promote cognitive development in ZPD.
 27. Give a brief account of the various components of language
- (5 x 5 = 25)

PART D

Answer any 2 (12 marks each)

28. Detail about the various teratogens and other maternal factors that affect brain development during the prenatal period
 29. Explain Vygotsky's view of cognitive development, noting the importance of social experience and language.
 30. Critically evaluate Kohlberg's theory of moral development
 31. Describe the terms cephalocaudal and proximodistal law. Briefly explain the sequence of gross motor and fine motor development in infants
- (12 x 2 = 24)